

CENTRE FOR RELIEF AND REHABILITATION (CRR)

Organisation Profile

Empowering marginalized communities through education, livelihoods, and relief support to build self-reliant, resilient, and inclusive rural societies.

About CRR

- Centre for Relief and Rehabilitation (CRR) is a grassroots, rural-based non-profit organisation established in 2020 under the Indian Trusts Act, 1882.
- CRR works across rural areas of Lower Assam, focusing on marginalized, vulnerable, and underserved communities.
- Committed to sustainable development, livelihoods, education, community participation, and relief during emergencies and crises.
- Head Office: Howriapet, Maktaigaon, Gossaigaon, Kokrajhar District, Assam.
- Through participatory approaches and grassroots engagement, CRR works with communities, local institutions, government systems, and development partners to create lasting impact.

Our Vision

- To build an inclusive, self-reliant, and empowered society where marginalized communities live with dignity, equal opportunities, sustainable livelihoods, access to quality education, and basic human rights.

Our Mission

- To empower marginalized communities through livelihood, education, relief, and community development initiatives.
- CRR promotes self-reliance, dignity, and inclusive development by supporting vulnerable families, improving access to opportunities, and strengthening community resilience in rural Assam.
