

TRAINING REPORT

Women Micro-Enterprise training on poultry Rearing

Organized by: Empowerment for Change (E4C)

Date: 21st, July 2026

Venue: Civic Centre, Council junction, Tamenglong

Empowerment for Change (E4C) successfully conducted a Women Micro-Enterprise Training for the selected beneficiaries on “Poultry Rearing” at the Civic Centre, Council Junction, Tamenglong. The training was attended by 31 beneficiaries with the aim of improving their livelihoods through poultry rearing.

The programme was led by Chingkhiuchungliu Panmei, Programme Manager, who welcomed the participants and guided the day’s activities. Esther Gangmei, Executive Director of E4C, served as the Resource Person. She spoke on the importance of poultry rearing as a sustainable source of income and encouraged the beneficiaries to make proper use of the knowledge and skills gained from the training to improve their livelihoods and strengthen their economic independence.

During the programme, Gailinliu Panmei, Accountant, took the initiative to collect and update the beneficiaries’ data regarding the Poultry Unit Set-Up to ensure accurate project records and monitoring.

The Programme Manager also explained how to maintain an Income and Sales Record Book. The beneficiaries were guided on recording daily expenses, sales, income, and profits to help them effectively monitor the progress of their poultry enterprises. Income and Sales Record Books were distributed to all the beneficiaries.

The training concluded successfully with active participation from all attendees. It was a productive and informative programme that strengthened the beneficiaries’ knowledge of poultry management and basic record-keeping, enabling them to improve their livelihoods through sustainable poultry farming.

Prepared by:

Programme Manager, E4C

Figure 1 Empowering women through poultry rearing

Figure 2 Director training the beneficiaries