

EDUCATION CULTURAL & HEALTH ORGANISATION (ECHO)

Annual Report for the year of 2021-2022

FREE HEATH CAMPS:

Society was also conducted Health and hygiene camps for old aged person and children in the rural village. In this programme our society has providing healthy Nutricen food, protected drinking water and cloths to the old aged peoples and children's and aware to how to protect from the Maleria, Khalora, Thaifaid and all type of fevers and despises. In this programme Local Doctors and Health staff participates in the campaigns and explain to the rural-people about the safe drinking water nutrition food maintains of clean lines in their surroundings. The Doctors conducted health checkup and free medicines were distributed to the rural poor people's. In this programme number of peoples participated.

TAILORING PROGRAMME:

The society has conducted vocational in tailoring and embroidery training in rural and other weaker section girls. Every year we are giving training fro about 50 girls sofar 200 girls were benefit with their programme after the training we have distributed free sewauibng machines to the poor and needy girls, some of the girls for employment in different tailoring shops and some of the girls were started their own tailoring units, our society has been working in remote rural village.

CONSUMER AWARENESS:

Our Society has conducted consumer Awareness Programme at rural village. In the daily life the consumer goods methods are main in the society. We has conducted consumer rallie. In this rallies we used Banners and cards and other field publicity materials have displaced and education materials and literature distributed to the local public for the sake awareness in the rural villages. In this programme nearly we have conducted 50 consumers training on the subject of consumer education. In this programme we have conducted that to educate consumer on the wrong methods adopted businessmen and to compromise on quality and quantity of goods. We are conducted import training was motivated to consumers through the social workers.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA:

The organization has conducted International Day of Yoga with financial help of the Nehru Yuva Kendra, hindupur. In this programme the district officials and local people are participated.

SUPPLY OF TAILORING RAW MATERIAL:

The Organization has supplied Tailoring raw materials for eight tailoring centres with financial help of the Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu. We have supplied cloths, threads and other materials for eight tailoring training centres an Ananthapuramu town.

ELOCUTION COMPETITION PROGRAMME:

The organization has conducted Elocution Competition programme with the financial help of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu. In this programme different schools students are participated.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME:

The above programme was conducted in the villages of Makodiki, Kairevu, Lakshmampalli and Settur. The Organization has engaged Jana Vignana Mandal, Kurnool as a resources persons. The Jana Vignana Mandal Cultural troops arranged dramas, folkdance, poranic cultural activities to create awareness on sanitation, social atrocities, women atrocities and environmental crisis to the general public of the above villages. This programme has been financial assistance by the N.Y.K. Ananthapuramu.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS:

The Programme was taken up with a multiple aim to educate the people environmental issues. Accordingly, the organization has taken up a programme to protect the plants and trees on the road side and in the waste lands, which are not protected and are eaten by animals etc., At the same time meetings were organized to explain the people about nature, environment, environmental effects on human life, and various acts that disturb the environmental and eco balances, protection of plants and fauna, protection of forests and hills, conservation of water etc., were explained to them in this regard. To protect environmental gifts.

TRAINING ON YOUTH LEADERSHIP:

The society has conduct youth orientation camp in our mandal surroundings 10 villages youth leadership training in rural villages for developing in any away youth is the key role to keeping in view the society training for different development programme relating to the rural development by the state / central government with this training the youth will enlighten the remaining peoples and they will work for their village development. This programme has been conducted with the financial help of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu.

WOMEN AND CHILD WELFARE:

A camp was organized with women from ten villages working District for Health Education. 150 Women and Children's participated the camp. The training was focused on child nutrition, family balanced diet, drinking water, water born diseases, personal, domestic and environment at hygiene. The posters, discussions method were adapted to educate Women and Children on health. The organization has distributed bread, fruits and medicines for Children's in the rural villages. Who are poor and needy Women and Children's has been identified by the staff and distributed medicines to the rural poor Women and Children's.

EDUCATION CULTURAL & HEALTH ORGANISATION (ECHO)

Annual Report for the year of 2022-2023

Disabled Welfare Programme:- Under this programme the organization has taken up a programme to identify people with disabilities in each of the village, and to form them into a group in each village. The organization has conducted meetings to boost their physical and mental, and also to build confidence that they are equally good to any other in the outside world. They were informed about various income generation activities that they can take up. The organization has also supported them to receive their medical certificates, so that they can avail various facilities from the government schemes, Information on government agencies like NHFDC and about Dept. for Physically Handicapped persons is provided to them, so that they can seek information of activities, and seek financial assistance as well.

Consumer Awareness Camp:- to empower the consumer by improving their awareness level on consumer act and their legal rights the organization has conducted Awareness camps " in 10 villages of Anantapur rural villages. 2 qualified lawyers were invited to the camps as resource persons. They educated the people and enlightened themes to get rightful and justified services and returns for their paying and to protest the malpractices of the wanders/merchants.

Vocational training for SC/ST and OBC women :-

Vocational training programme has been initiated with a view to enable rural SC/ST& OBC women to acquire technical skill to have an easy access to self employment opportunities. Under the programme training has been given to 65 women in Tailoring, Basket making, saree painting, Soft Toys etc. The programme did not remain limited to mo re impart Vocational training, the women who have undergone training were Motivated to obtain financial assistance from Banks and subsidiary. Under IRDP and other schemes meant for poverty alleviation. The Programme was weil organized to the maximum satisfaction of target women.

Cancer Awareness Camps:-

Continuing the Health awareness programme, the organization has also taken up cancer awareness programme in 4 villages. During the programme, the organization has taken the support of local doctors to educate the people about cancer and the causes for cancer. The risk of exposure to cancer due to the consumption of tobacco products like pan masalas, cigarettes, Gutkas etc. Early detection and the cure were explained during the camp

Women Legal Aid:- Under this activity, three legal awareness camps were organized by the organization to educate the public about legal issues. Observing various minor problem which can be mutually settled with compromise and understanding, but still were taken to the law of court, the organization has taken up this programme. With the help of noted civil and criminal lawyers from Anantapur town, this programme has been organized by the organization, wherein different social and property related disputes were discussed by the lawyers and explained them about the need to settle down such minor issues with a small meeting among themselves. The resource persons have also answered several questions raised by the attendants as a part of this programme.

Cultural Activities:- Cultural programme are part of organization's awareness generation campaigns. For ages Indian people are adamant supporters of cultural shows like folk songs. street plays. Theatre etc people gather in large numbers to watch this type of activities. Therefore our organization has taken this media to create awareness among the communities on several issues. Folk songs, street plays etc, were prepared and enacted on various issues such as - women issues like dowry issue, domestic violence, girl child related issues, social issues like eve teasing, untouchability, etc. Through these activities, the organization has taken up various issues into the public and educated them on them. These shows have attracted people in large number

Aids Awareness Camps:- Aids Awareness camp has been organized by a Moving team which has toured on National High way. Seven passes through Anantapur rural. The team has conducted awareness camps besides the Road. High risk groups like commercial. Sex workers, HIV/AIDS Lorry Drivers

Future the team has conducted Awareness Camps in Govt. High Schools and Colleges to create awareness among the students who will easily understand and spread the information among common folk.

Environmental Awareness camps: - Degrading environmental conditions are posing threat to the eco-environmental conditions not only in India, but throughout the world. The environmentalists are fighting on issues of global warming and warning about the degradation of greenery and forest on the planet. Therefore, in a bid to promote environmental regeneration, the organization has taken up this programme, under which the communities are education about eco-environmental issues, greenery on the planet, its importance information on various types of environmental pollution, global warming, and steps to be taken for minimizing these effects on mother earth were explained to them. The need to take up large-scale plantation and protection of forte and green fauna is explained plantation of different forest species was taken up by motivating, youth, women, farmers and the school children

Tailoring Training Programme :- Tailoring Training Programme as a part of alternative income generation programme. This programme received big response from the communities as they come forward to undergo this training. Under this programme 35 women and adolescent girls given training in Cutting, Stitching etc. for a period of three months. The organization has used the services of experienced professionals in this training.

Literacy programme: The programme mainly aimed to eradicate illiteracy among rural Masses by disseminating the concept of literacy among the target people. The programme has been carried out in 10 villages by conducting meetings, wall writing dressing the importance of literacy. Coverage of beneficiaries under the campaign is approximately 1500 persons.

Drinking Water & Sanitation Awareness :- It is open fact that if safe drinking water is consumed 50% of the diseases are avoided. But due to lack of proper awareness and education, almost of the rural masses are neglected this and being is practice of taking polluted water from the open wells and Tanks. So that they have been often caused for so many Consumer Awareness Camp:- to empower the consumer by improving their awareness level on consumer act and their legal rights the organization has conducted Awareness camps " in 10 villages of Anantapur rural villages. 2 qualified lawyers were invited to the camps as resource persons. They educated the people and enlightened themes to get rightful and justified services and returns for their paying and to protest the malpractices of the wanders/merchants.

EDUCATION CULTURAL & HEALTH ORGANISATION (ECHO)

Annual Report for the year of 2023-2024

CONSUMER AWARENESS:

Our Society has conducted consumer Awareness Programme at rural village. In the daily life the consumer goods methods are main in the society. We has conducted consumer rallie. In this rallies we used Banners and cards and other field publicity materials have displaced and education materials and literature distributed to the local public for the sake awareness in the rural villages. In this programme nearly we have conducted 50 consumers training on the subject of consumer education. In this programme we have conducted that to educate consumer on the wrong methods adopted businessmen and to compromise on quality and quantity of goods. We are conducted import training was motivated to consumers through the social workers.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF YOGA:

The organization has conducted International Day of Yoga with financial help of the Nehru Yuva Kendra, hindupur. In this programme the district officials and local people are participated.

SUPPLY OF TAILORING RAW MATERIAL:

The Organization has supplied Tailoring raw materials for eight tailoring centres with financial help of the Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu. We have supplied cloths, threads and other materials for eight tailoring training centres an Ananthapuramu town.

ELOCUTION COMPETITION PROGRAMME:

The organization has conducted Elocution Competition programme with the financial help of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu. In this programme different schools students are participated.

Cultural Activities:- Cultural programme are part of organization's awareness generation campaigns. For ages Indian people are adamant supporters of cultural shows like folk songs. street plays. Theatre etc people gather in large numbers to watch this type of activities. Therefore our organization has taken this media to create awareness among the communities on several issues. Folk songs, street plays etc, were prepared and enacted on various issues such as - women issues like dowry issue, domestic violence, girl child related issues, social issues like eve teasing, untouchability, etc. Through these activities, the organization has taken up various issues into the public and educated them on them. These shows have attracted people in large number

Aids Awareness Camps:- Aids Awareness camp has been organized by a Moving team which has toured on National High way. Seven passes through Anantapur rural. The team has conducted awareness camps besides the Road. High risk groups like commercial. Sex workers, HIV/AIDS Lorry Drivers

Future the team has conducted Awareness Camps in Govt. High Schools and Colleges to create awareness among the students who will easily understand and spread the information among common folk.

TRAINING ON YOUTH LEADERSHIP:

The society has conduct youth orientation camp in our mandal surroundings 10 villages youth leadership training in rural villages for developing in any way youth is the key role to keeping in view the society training for different development programme relating to the rural development by the state / central government with this training the youth will enlighten the remaining peoples and they will work for their village development. This programme has been conducted with the financial help of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu.

WOMEN AND CHILD WELFARE:

A camp was organized with women from ten villages working District for Health Education. 180 Women and Children's participated the camp. The training was focused on child nutrition, family balanced diet, drinking water, water born diseases, personal, domestic and environment at hygiene. The posters, discussions method were adapted to educate Women and Children on health. The organization has distributed bread, fruits and medicines for Children's in the rural villages. Who are poor and needy Women and Children's has been identified by the staff and distributed medicines to the rural poor Women and Children's.

Tailoring Training Programme :- Tailoring Training Programme as a part of alternative income generation programme. This programme received big response from the communities as they come forward to undergo this training. Under this programme 35 women and adolescent girls given training in Cutting, Stitching etc. for a period of three months. The organization has used the services of experienced professionals in this training.

Literacy programme: The programme mainly aimed to eradicate illiteracy among rural Masses by disseminating the concept of literacy among the target people. The programme has been carried out in 10 villages by conducting meetings, wall writing dressing the importance of literacy. Coverage of beneficiaries under the campaign is approximately 1500 persons.

Drinking Water & Sanitation Awareness :- It is open fact that if safe drinking water is consumed 50% of the diseases are avoided. But due to lack of proper awareness and education, almost of the rural masses are neglected this and being is practice of taking polluted water from the open wells and Tanks. So that they have been often caused for so many.

Health Programme: Health Checkup Camps were organized as a part of providing. basic. Medical facilities to the rural communities at their village itself. As a part of this, this year 4 health checkup camps were organized with the support of service minded doctors and persons related o medical field. The camps were organized in the panchayath villages, and checkups were organized. People from hamlet villages have gathered and got treatment and tablets for minor ailments. Awareness on health aspects was also given to them.

Cultural Programms: This activity is to promote the taste of arts and culture among the rural communities, particularly the youth and the children. As a part of this programme, our organization. has organized programmes like cultural shows in their popular folk formats like puppet shows, Kolatam for the village youth, and dancing and singing-for the school children. These competitions were held during the village festivals for the youth and during the national festivals for the students.

JAL JEEVAN MISSION: Our NGO became part of Jal Jeevan Mission, which is envisioned To provide safe and adequate drinking water in rural and urban areas. In this project we conducted a survey about water resources in 5 subdivisions which consists of 401 villages and 22 mandals of Anantapur district. By this project we created awareness camps for recharge and reuse of water through grey water management , water conservation and rain water harvesting, Our NGO contributes to the Sustainable Development Goals(SDG) by addressing water scarcity and contamination, fostering holistic development.

APSDC Skill Training Project: Our NGO organized skill training programs for unemployed youth and household women, economically weaker sections of the society.

Tailoring: Our NGO Intends to give skills training in tailoring for sustainable livelihoods To rural and urban women. With this skill training women will live with dignity by earning money themselves. We have conducted many training batches for women and provided self employment.

Bedside Nursing: In the health care sector also Our NGO involves giving training for Bedside nursing. In this project we teach them a combination of clinical expertise, empathy And effective communication. With this training many women are benefitted and employed In various places.

Solar Training: We developed the skill required for the unemployed youth to meet the market demands. We conducted many Solar Panel installation and maintenance training for the youth and many of them get employment.

Under NIHAR SKILL EDUCATION KADAPA , Program for unemployed youth job placement linked skill development training programs (Refrigeration and AC , mobile Technician).

GVWS & VSWS Department Training Program: Our NGO conducted skill upgradation for employees of Grama & Ward Sachivalayam in 9 mandals of Anantapur District.

EDUCATION CULTURAL & HEALTH ORGANISATION (ECHO)

Annual Report for the year of 2024-2025

Vocational training for SC/ST and OBC women :- Vocational training programme has been initiated with a view to enable rural SC/ST & OBC women to acquire technical skill to have an easy access to self employment opportunities. Under the programme training has been given to 65 women in Tailoring, Basket making, saree painting, Soft Toys etc. The programme did not remain limited to mo re impart Vocational training, the women who have undergone training were Motivated to obtain financial assistance from Banks and subsidiary. Under IRDP and other schemes meant for poverty alleviation. The Programme was weil organized to the maximum satisfaction of target women.

Cancer Awareness Camps:- Continuing the Health awareness programme, the organization has also taken up cancer awareness programme in 4 villages. During the programme, the organization has taken the support of local doctors to educate the people about cancer and the causes for cancer. The risk of exposure to cancer due to the consumption of tobacco products like pan masalas, cigarettes, Gutkas etc. Early detection and the cure were explained during the camp

Environmental Awareness camps: - Degrading environmental conditions are posting threat to the eco-environmental conditions not only in India, but throughout the world. The environmentalists are fighting on issues of global warming and warning about the degradation of greenery and forest on the planet. Therefore, in a bid to promote environmental regeneration, the organization has taken up this programme, under which the communities are education about eco-environmental issues, greenery on the planet, its importance information on various types of environmental pollution, global warming, and steps to be taken for minimizing these effects on mother earth were explained to them. The need to take up large-scale plantation and protection of forte and green fauna is explained plantation of different forest species was taken up by motivating, youth, women, farmers and the school children.

Aids Awareness Camps:- Aids Awareness camp has been organized by a Moving team which has toured on National High way. Seven passes through Anantapur rural. The team has conducted awareness camps besides the Road. High risk groups like commercial. Sex workers, HIV/AIDS Lorry Drivers and others have been enlightened the measures to be taken for Prevention of Future the team has conducted Awareness Camps in Govt. High Schools and Colleges to create awareness among the students who will easily understand and spread the information among common folk.

TRAINING ON YOUTH LEADERSHIP: The society has conducted youth orientation camp in our mandal surroundings 10 villages youth leadership training in rural villages for developing in any way youth is the key role to keeping in view the society training for different development programme relating to the rural development by the state / central government with this training the youth will enlighten the remaining peoples and they will work for their village development. This programme has been conducted with the financial help of Nehru Yuva Kendra, Ananthapuramu.

CULTURAL PROGRAMME: The above programme was conducted in the villages of Makodiki, Kairevu, Lakshampalli and Settur. The Organization has engaged Jana Vignana Mandal, Kurnool as a resources persons. The Jana Vignana Mandal Cultural troops arranged dramas, folkdance, poranic cultural activities to create awareness on sanitation, social atrocities, women atrocities and environmental crisis to the general public of the above villages. This programme has been financial assistance by the N.Y.K. Ananthapuramu.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS: The Programme was taken up with a multiple aim to educate the people environmental issues. Accordingly, the organization has taken up a programme to protect the plants and trees on the road side and in the waste lands, which are not protected and are eaten by animals etc., At the same time meetings were organized to explain the people about nature, environment, environmental effects on human life, and various acts that disturb the environmental and eco balances, protection of plants and fauna, protection of forests and hills, conservation of water etc., were explained to them in this regard. To protect environmental gifts.

WOMEN AND CHILD WELFARE: A camp was organized with women from ten villages working District for Health Education. 150 Women and Children's participated the camp. The training was focused on child nutrition, family balanced diet, drinking water, water born diseases, personal, domestic and environment at hygiene. The posters, discussions method were adapted to educate Women and Children on health. The organization has distributed bread, fruits and medicines for Children's in the rural villages. Who are poor and needy Women and Children's has been identified by the staff and distributed medicines to the rural poor Women and Children's.

AIDS AWARENESS: The working area is under AIDS scare. Seven out of 100 male and five out of 180 female are having HIV positive. The tentacles of AIDS are spreading in the area like under current affecting the poor communities especially the women. The JMM recognized this issue and decided to combat on HIV/ AIDS. It conducted awareness camps with high risk groups such as prostitutes, truck drivers and youth to prevent the HIV infection. The cultural and audio visual media were adopted to create awareness among the public. The condom plays important role in prevention of HIV / AIDS. JMM distributed condoms in the slum area and kept in the local shops for free distribution.

FREE HEATH CAMPS: Society was also conducted Health and hygiene camps for old aged person and children in the rural village. In this programme our society has providing healthy Nutricen food, protected drinking water and cloths to the old aged peoples and children's and aware to how to protect from the Maleria, Khalora, Thaid and all type of fevers and despises. In this programme Local Doctors and Health staff participates in the campaigns and explain to the rural-people about the safe drinking water nutrition food maintains of clean lines in their surroundings. The Doctors conducted health checkup and free medicines were distributed to the rural poor people's. In this programme number of peoples participated.

ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS: The Programme was taken up with a multiple aim to educate the people environmental issues. Accordingly, the organization has taken up a programme to protect the plants and trees on the road side and in the waste lands, which are not protected and are eaten by animals etc., At the same time meetings were organized to explain the people about nature, environment, environmental effects on human life, and various acts that disturb the environmental and eco balances, protection of plants and fauna, protection of forests and hills, conservation of water etc., were explained to them in this regard. To protect environmental gifts.