ARUNTHATHIYAR SOCIAL JUSTICE FEDERATION

Introduction

Tamil Nadu is one of the states which has 6 million population of the Arunthathiyar community. They are considered as lowest in the dalit hierarchy, the 'Dalit among Dalits' - the 'untouchables'. To empower this marginalised community, Arunthathiyar Social Justice Federation (ASJF) has established itself as a state level forum since 2019. It comprises 61 Arunthathiyar lead community based organisations across Tamil Nadu.

Arunthathiyar Social Justice federation works to Protect and promote the rights of Arunthathiyar, especially women and children, and to see the elimination of discrimination and violence against them, and the effective improvement of their education and economy. Eradication of manual scavenging and alternate work for them. In collaboration with like-minded human rights organizations, social movements, professionals and others, we demand accountability from both the state and civil society to ensure equality and dignity to these socially marginalized communities. To undertake wider level advocacy and lobbying particularly at State level to address violence, discrimination and exploitation on the Arunthathiyar community.

Purpose:

To make positive changes in the lives of Arunthathiyar community by impacting the policies and programmes and by strengthening the Civil society organisations working for this cause.

Goal:

To impact 100 organisations in Tamil Nadu

Objectives:

- i. To intervene with government schemes, legislation, policies, national action plans and accountability systems towards the benefit of the Arunthathiyar community.
- ii. Gathering, evaluating and dissemination of information regarding Education, Social, Political and Economic status of Arunthathiyar community towards making policy level changes.
- iii. To build stronger and inclusive Advocacy initiatives for increase the inner reservation and monitor proper accessibility.
- iv. To advocate developing an inclusive and integrative policy for increasing and promoting employment and decent work opportunities.
- v. To strengthen the capacity of Arunthathiyar organisations, groups, and individuals committed to the pursuit of ASJF's purpose and goals.
- vi. To establish Social, Health, Economic and Education related institutions and publish books, reports journals, magazines, newspapers, periodicals, thesis, researches, writings, discoveries, documents, news and information.
